A CITY OF ICONIC TREES

POST EXPLOSION
SHEARED OFF TREES

SHOCKWAVES ABSTRACTED TO STRUCTURAL FORM

"One eye was gone, she kept her hand over it so that her husband could not see her injury."

"He made his way up Campbell Rd. over the debris and among the corpses. The dead seemed to him to have been drowned."

"The children were so hungry I didn't even wash the potatoes."

"On the morning of December 6th, was at breakfast. His wife had just handed him a cup of coffee, when he heard a deep boom far away in the distance. Three seconds later came the crash."

"There was a blizzard that night. Snow drifted in around the hastily-covered windows and doors; the piano in the parlor was buried in snow because the windows there had low priority."

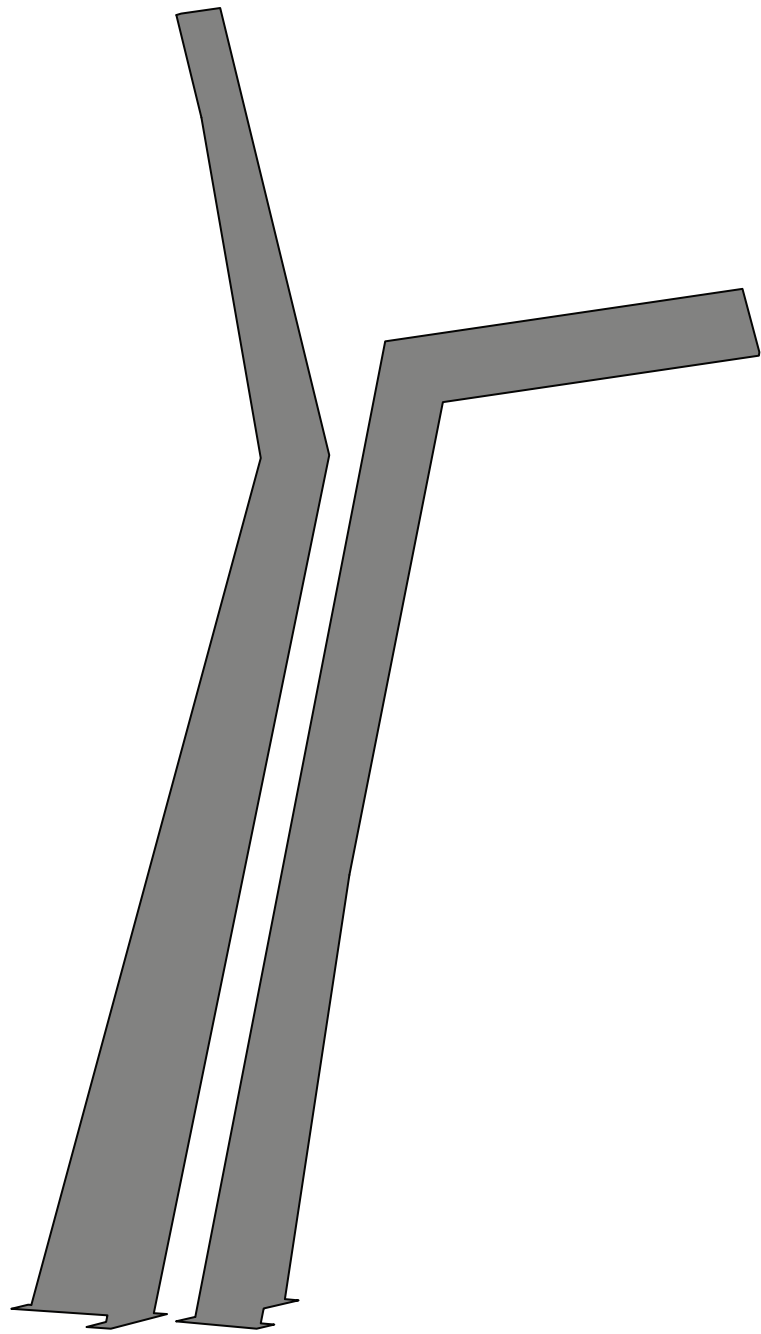

"Gladstone St.
cor. Willow St. Ford, Mrs. Louise. Widow aged 76
Alone and without any means. URGENT.
Food immediately and blankets."
