

Introduction

The Halifax Board of Police Commissioners (BOPC) is the civilian board that provides governance and oversight to the Halifax Regional Police. The Board also functions as a Police Advisory Board to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Halifax District as it performs contractual policing services for the Halifax Regional Municipality. The Commission is a statutory body created by the Police Act, S.N.S. 2004, c. 31. There are seven members of the Board: six are appointed by Halifax Regional Council and the seventh appointed by the Nova Scotia Minister of Justice. Of the six appointed by HRM Council, three of the members are HRM Councillors and three are community members.

The Board is the link between the community and the police service. The Board's authority derives from the Nova Scotia Police Act giving the Board the mandate with respect to the Halifax Regional Police to provide:

- (a) civilian governance on behalf of HRM Council in relation to the enforcement of law, the maintenance of law and order and the prevention of crime in the municipality; and
- (b) the administrative direction, organization and policy required to maintain an adequate, effective and efficient police department,

And with respect to the RCMP, to provide advice to the council in relation to the enforcement of law, the maintenance of law and order and the prevention of crime in the municipality

The relationship between the Board and the police services is unique to Halifax because both provide policing within the boundaries of HRM. Both are citizen focused and strive to collaborate and integrate as much as possible. The Board recognizes and values this collaborative effort. The collaborative nature of both services is a best practice that the Board strives to maintain.

The policies developed by the Board are intended to guide the Board in its governance role. No policy adopted by the Board is intended to limit or prevent the Chief of HRP from establishing operational policies as per the Police Act.

These policies will guide the Halifax Board of Police Commissioners as it establishes its vision, mission, values, strategic planning and work plans to fulfill its mandate.

2. The Board shall review its mission, vision, guiding principles and strategic plan annually.
3. The Board shall be guided by a Strategic Plan which reflects its future goals and objectives and which the Board updates regularly.
4. The Board shall create an annual work plan no later than April 1 of each year.

Independence and Jurisdiction Policy of Police Board

1. The Board's purpose is, in part, to preserve policing independence from political interference while ensuring civilian oversight of the extraordinary powers of the police.
2. The Board of Police Commissioners is an entity that the Police Act states must be created by any municipality that establishes a municipal police department. The Police Act states a Police Advisory Board must be created by any municipality receiving policing services in whole or in part from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police or the Provincial Police.
3. As Council elects to share responsibility for policing between HRP and the RCMP, the Board has a dual role. Firstly, it acts as a governing board for HRP. Secondly it acts as a Police Advisory Board to the RCMP pursuant to s. 57 (1) of the Police Act.
4. The Board has a unique relationship with the municipal council and it exists, in part, to insulate the police services from the political decision making process. The Police Board is responsible for ensuring that the police provide effective and efficient services. The municipal council provides the police department with an annual budget to achieve these objectives.
5. The RCMP follows policy and governance established by the Federal government and is not subject to civilian oversight. Therefore the Board acts primarily in an advisory capacity.
6. The Board ensures the independence of the operation of policing in Halifax, but HRP is also functionally a department of the municipality. The municipality's non-policing policies apply to HRP, such as finance, procurement, and human resources.
7. While the Board approves the operating budget of HRP, the CAO and the municipality provide and are responsible for day to day oversight, financial controls, and finance and audit for HRP. HRM, through the Board, is to assure that sufficient resources are provided and/or contracted to provide adequate, effective and efficient police services to HRM.
8. The work of the police services necessitates confidentiality and adherence to security protocols and, to that end, the Board will adopt regulations and procedures to closely restrict access to, and disclosure of, information under the authority of the police services. Board's independent status is achieved by ensuring accountability for oversight of the police services and their employees.

9. The Board is responsible for ensuring that the security and confidentiality interests of the police services, and the safety interests of the public and Department are protected. Advancing of joint ventures or shared services with municipal council or any other agency can only occur where the Board is satisfied that confidentiality and security issues have been properly addressed.

Composition of Board, Selection and Appointments

1. The Police Act, in sections 44(4) & 57(4) requires that the Board consist of seven members: three members of council appointed by resolution of the council; three members appointed by resolution of the council, who are neither members of council nor employees of the municipality; and one member appointed by the Provincial Minister of Justice.
2. The Board will consider the composite skills it requires to meet its responsibilities and maximize its success, and the elements it requests with respect to tenure and the rotation of members, and communicate those to Council as recommendations or requests when vacancies arise on the Board.
3. The Board strives to reflect the diversity and make-up of the HRM population and seeks to include members representing diverse communities.

Board Governance Style and Commitment

1. As a statutory governance body, the Board must be and be seen to be:
 - a. operating in all ways mindful of its civic trusteeship obligation to the public and accountability for the governance and/or advising the police services;
 - b. independent of the police service administration and management, political affiliation and interest groups;
 - c. subject to the needs of confidentiality and security, open, transparent, and accessible to both the public and the police services; and
 - d. responsive to the community.
2. The Board shall govern collaboratively and in a way that emphasizes outward vision. It shall encourage strategic leadership rather than administrative detail and shall maintain a clear distinction between Board governance and the Chiefs' roles as chief executive officer or superintendent of the police services.
3. Attendance at all regular meetings by all Commissioners is preferred in order to ensure quorum is met. Commissioners have the obligation to inform the Chair if they are not able to attend a meeting in person.
4. The Chair, Vice Chair and the Chiefs or their designates will meet no later than five (5) days in advance of the regularly scheduled meeting to establish the agenda and confirm the agenda and to plan the upcoming meeting agenda so that agenda setting is established in advance.
5. The Board and Chiefs shall commit to the following guiding principles with respect to their relationship and responsibilities:
 - a. acknowledge the importance of goodwill between each other;
 - b. respect each other's roles, interests and accountabilities;

- c. give each other the benefit of the doubt, accept honest mistakes and seek explanations before reacting;
 - d. recognize and respect each other's decision-making processes and lines of authority;
 - e. acknowledge that the Board's mandate is summarized as general oversight and setting of policing policy; and
 - f. recognize that the Chiefs are responsible for daily policing and all operational matters.
6. Communications between the Board and Chiefs shall:
- a. promote common understanding
 - b. promote quick and effective resolution of issues, and
 - c. build stronger relationships; information shall be shared to the fullest extent possible and be undertaken in an atmosphere that promotes clarity, transparency, openness and trust.
7. The Board and its members shall be responsible for excellence in governing. The Board itself shall be an initiator of policy, in addition to responding to policy initiatives from staff. 4. The Board directs the Chief of Police through approved Board policies, and detailed operational policies are to be developed by the Chief in furtherance of Board policy.
5. Only decisions of the Board acting as a body are binding upon the Chiefs, to the extent authorized by the Police Act:
 - a. Decisions or instructions of individual Commissioners or committees are not binding on the Chiefs
 - b. In the case of Commissioners requesting information or assistance without Board authorization, the Chief has the option of bringing such requests to the Board if, in the Chief's judgement, a material amount of staff time or funds are required.
6. The Chiefs shall ensure that his/her actions and those of the police services will not compromise the independence of the Board.

7. The Chiefs may delegate authority to the extent that he/she considers appropriate, but remains personally responsible for all activities of the Department to the extent provided by the Police Act and By-law P-100.

1. Notwithstanding the need for Members to make informed decisions on issues before the Board by obtaining input from internal and external sources, Members are to ensure that information that is normally considered confidential (i.e. financial, legal and personnel issues) is not disclosed to any outside person unless authorized.
2. Halifax Regional Police and municipal police commissions and advisory boards in Nova Scotia are subject to the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy provisions of the Municipal Government Act.
