

Proclamation

National Drowning Prevention Week July 15th – 21st, 2017

WHEREAS: National Drowning Prevention Week aims to focus community and media attention on the drowning problem and drowning prevention; and

Promote and encourage the application of Water Smart behaviour by all individuals by providing information and resources necessary to remain safe both in, and around open bodies of water; and Through public education and Water Smart awareness, this national initiative aims to prevent occurrences of accidental drowning, and promote a safe aquatic environment for the public to enjoy. It is only through education and a great respect for the potential that large bodies of water present may we truly appreciate the beauty and recreation opportunities offered by open bodies of water.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Mayor Mike Savage, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council, do hereby proclaim July 15th – 21st, 2018 as "National Drowning Prevention Week" in the Halifax Regional Municipality and do commend its thoughtful recognition to all citizens of our community.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 15th day of July 2018
