

Proclamation

National Child Day November 20, 2018

WHEREAS, National Child Day 2018 commemorates the 1989 adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the adoption of the United Nation Declaration of the Rights of the Child, and

WHEREAS, the municipality's vision for Nova Scotia Children and youth is that they are healthy, safe and supported to reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate that our children and youth represent the promise to our future; and

WHEREAS, the municipality continues building on its commitment to children's rights and recognizes that government, communities and families share a role in supporting children and youth to live healthy lives; and

WHEREAS, Indigenous children and youth thrive best within their own cultures and traditions, and

WHEREAS, the municipality continues working with Indigenous leaders, and with communities, to more fully implement the principals for all Indigenous children in the Halifax Regional Municipality, and

WHEREAS, communities throughout the municipality are recognizing the importance of honoring child and youth rights today and throughout the year;

Therefore: be it resolved, that I, Mayor Mike Savage on behalf of Regional Council do hereby proclaim November 20, 2018 as National Child Day in Halifax Regional Municipality.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 20th day of November 2018
