

HRM Policing - Board of Police Commissioner's Dashboard - November 19th, 2018

Hfx. District - Board of Police Commissioner's Dashboard November 19th, 2018

Halifax District RCMP created a special poppy pin for Remembrance Day, worn by employees and their families. November 11th activities were well attended all over Halifax District. Cst. Sian Houston Tantallon Community Policing Officer took the Beechville Lakeside, Timberlea Citizens on Patrol for a tour of IES. IES is the Integrated Emergency Services (HRP, Fire and RCMP) dispatch center. The supervisor on duty Jamie Juteau explained the fire and police call process. The tour was enjoyed by all.

Halifax Regional Police Board of Police Commissioners' Dashboard for November 19, 2018

Memorial Service

On October 22, peace officers, first responders, civilians, military personnel & volunteers participated in the annual Nova Scotia Fallen Peace Officers' Memorial. Peace officers from across Nova Scotia paid tribute to peace officers in our province who gave the ultimate sacrifice.

Group photo of HRP members who were in attendance at the 2018 N.S. Fallen Peace Officers' Memorial service.

Sarge's Retirement

On November 7, Halifax Regional Police (HRP) announced the upcoming retirement of its Mounted Unit member, police horse Sarge, after 13 years of service. Concurrently, the newest four-legged member of the HRP family was also announced and is now visible on HRM streets as a police horse in training.

Sarge

Val

our newest 4-legged member

Project Red Ribbon

On November 1, HRP was honoured to host MADD Canada's "Project Red Ribbon" national launch at police headquarters.

Supt. Don MacLean cuts the red ribbon along with HRP & RCMP officers, MADD representatives & partners and Mayor Mike Savage.

Remembrance Day

On November 11, members of HRP were present at every one of the Remembrance Day services in HRM to pay our respects.

Lest we forget.

