The Brief story behind why this is needed

History

Black Nova Scotians or African Nova Scotians are Black Canadians whose ancestors primarily date back to the Colonial United States as slaves or freemen, and later arrived in Nova Scotia, Canada during the 18th and early 19th centuries.[5] As of the 2016 Census of Canada, 21,915 black people live in Nova Scotia,[2] most in Halifax.[6] Since the 1950s, numerous Black Nova Scotians have migrated to Toronto, Ontario, for its larger range of opportunities.[3][4] Before the immigration reforms of the 1960s, Black Nova Scotians formed 37% of the total Black Canadian population.
