

Wilderness Stays

Wilderness Stays Limited

A place to stay and a place to learn in HRM, Nova Scotia

By David Cahill

Introducing Wilderness Stays

- a low impact high end campsite between east dover and McGraths Cove on approx. 39 acres.
- maximum of 35 pitches made up of 18-25 glamping units
- Sustainable business based on short weekend rentals.
- Attracting guest from all over the world.
- Explore the beauty of the Nova Scotia wilderness

Wilderness Stays hopes to offer educational outdoor activities, and be a host to community events.

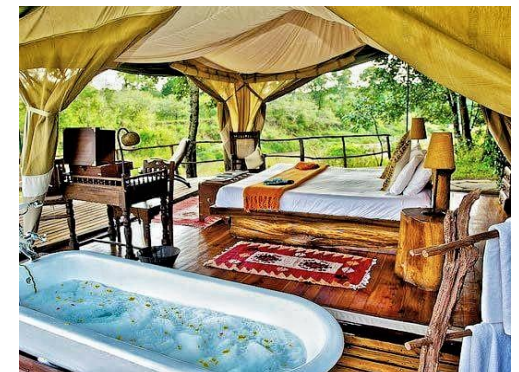

Our First Unit

the first 5 – 6 units that are intended to be placed on our site.

a Prospect Tent.

Planned project phasing laid out

Other Glamping Units and Ideas that we can bring to the area.

What makes us different

Sustainable and Innovative approach to building.

Lowering our environmental impact

Efficiency

conscientious approach to waste management

Environment

Our Land, Your Land

A Place of Education

- educational outdoor courses
- personal development courses

- rock climbing
- Canoeing
- zip lines
- high ropes.
- And More

- Opportunity for change

Summary

- attract more sustainable tourism to the area.
- High end comfortable camping experience and more.
- connecting with the environment
- enjoyed by generations to come.

