

Proclamation

Halifax Celtic Festival January 27-31 2021

Whereas; as part of Nova Scotia's rich diversity, Halifax Celtic Festival honours and celebrates the presence of peoples who have an ancestral background or a connection to their Celtic languages and cultural heritages.

Through song, music, dance, storytelling, arts, crafts, foodways, workshops and talks, people share Celtic languages and their cultural expressions in Nova Scotia. The Halifax Celtic Festival welcomes all Nova Scotian's to experience the unique and diverse languages and cultures connected to the peoples whose origins are Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, Gaelic Nova Scotia, Wales, Cornwall and Brittany.

Halifax Celtic Festival refers to these as the 7 Celtic Nations and acknowledges, celebrates and promotes the unique identities of the peoples who share and live out the languages and cultures of these great Nations.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, I, Mayor Mike Savage, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council do hereby proclaim January 27-31 2021 as "Halifax Celtic Festival Weekend" in the Halifax Regional Municipality and extend my personal thanks to the Celtic Cultural Society of Nova Scotia and everyone involved in this Halifax Celtic Festival event for keeping up our living heritages!
