

Item 9.2.2

CANOE '22

THE ATHLETES

- Nova Scotia will welcome over 1,000 elite athletes and coaches from 70 countries
- Athletes will compete in five-day competition.
- The sports program includes races in Women's, Men's, and Paracanoe categories
- Canoe and Kayak in single, doubles and quad boat races.
- A total of 32 different finals will be raced in 200, 500, 1000, and 5000 meter distances.

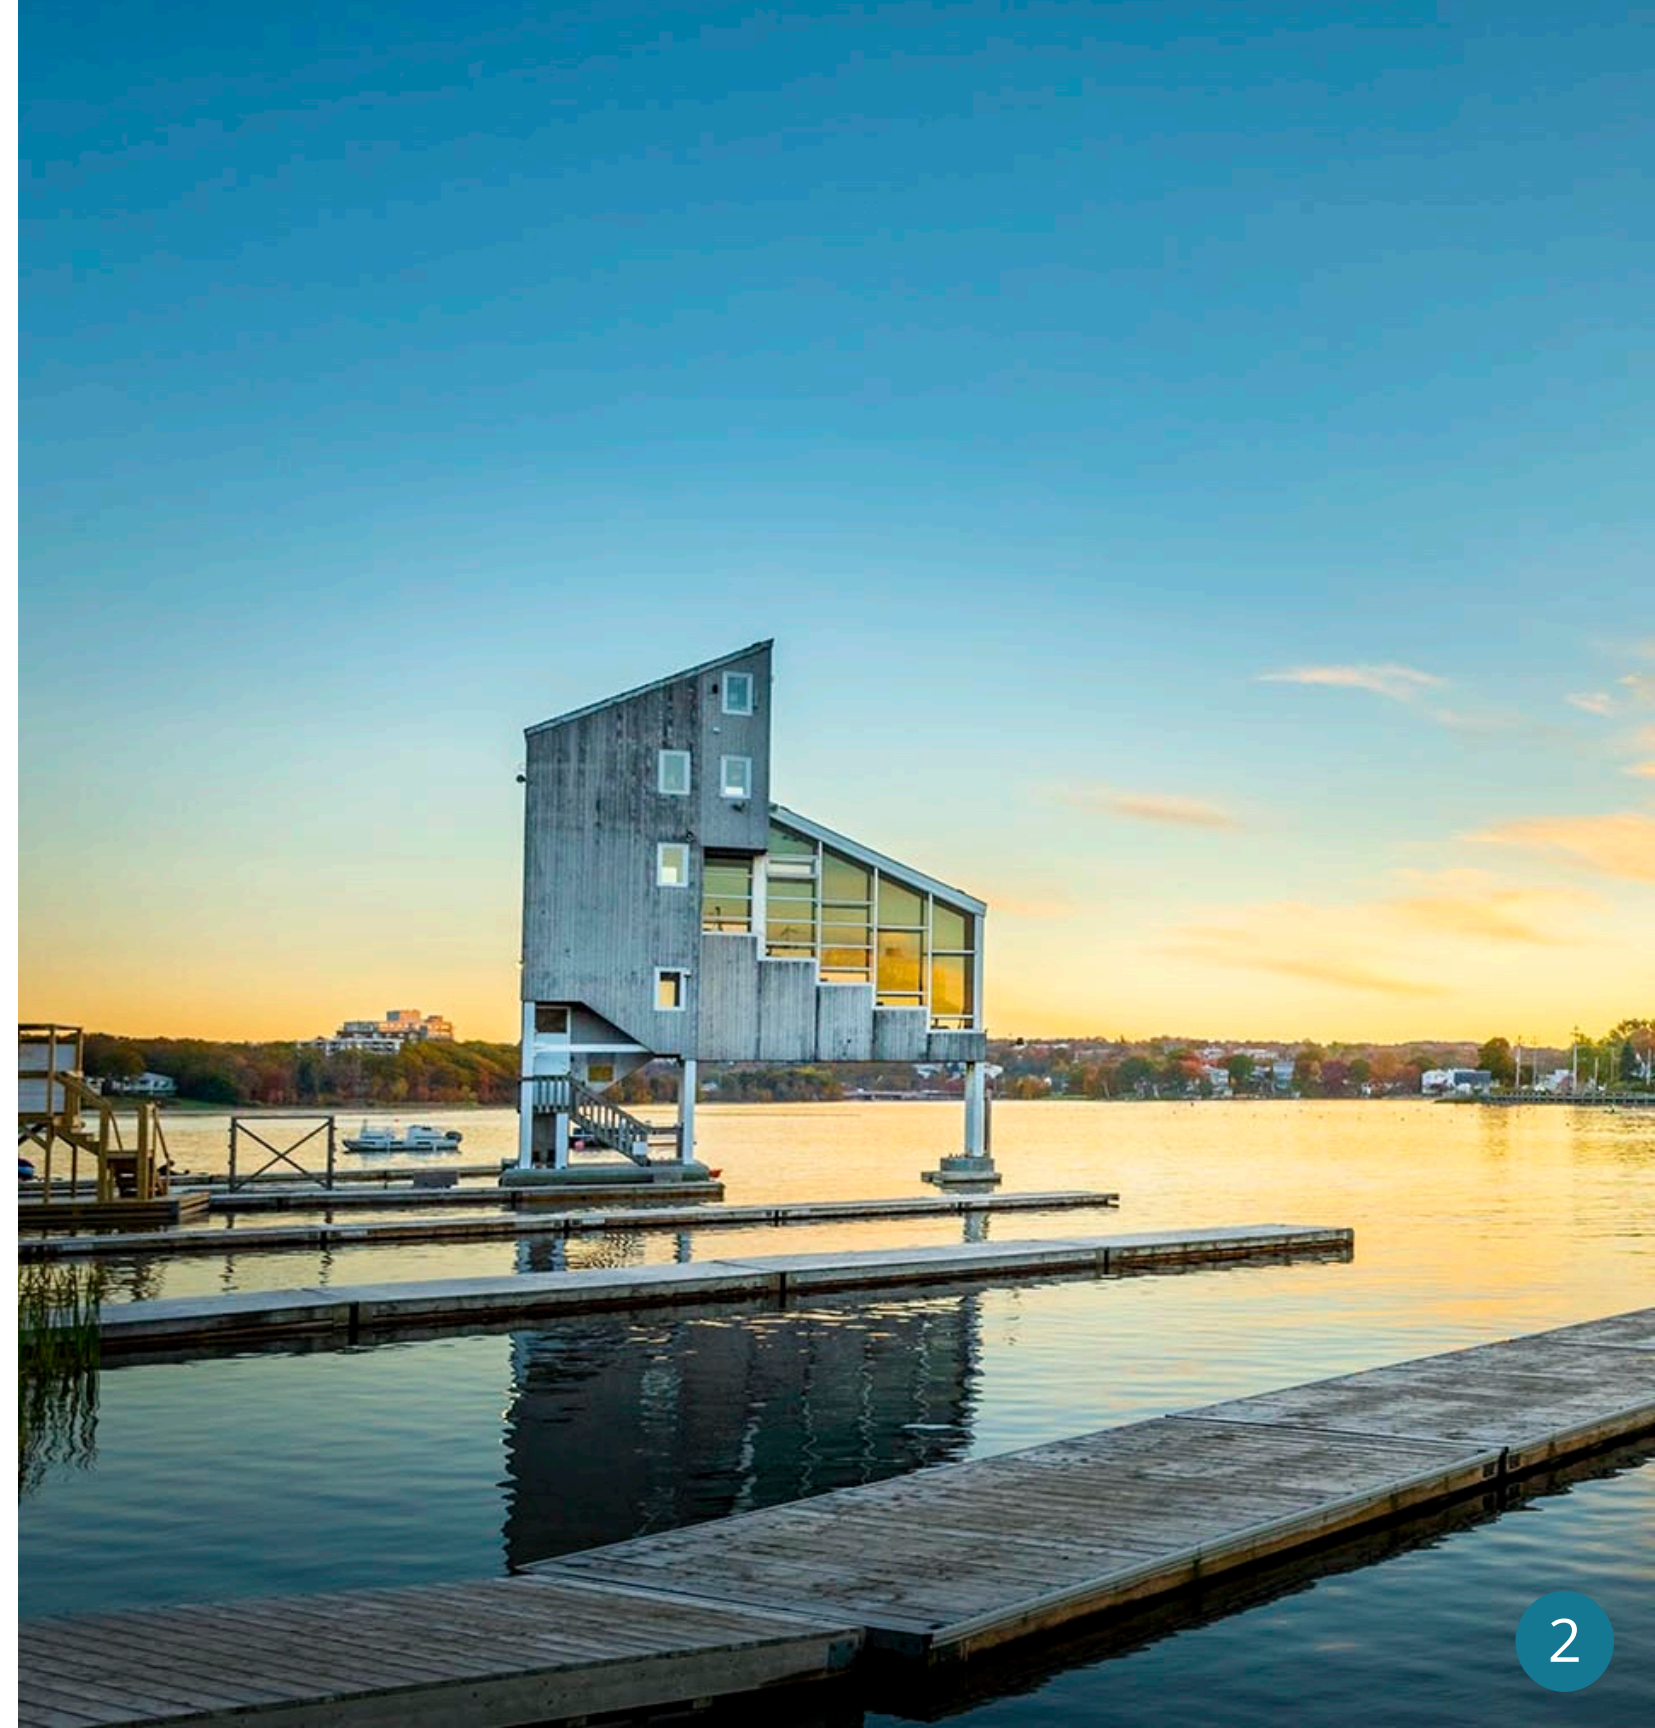

THE EVENT

- Lake Banook takes the global stage in Summer 2022 as the most powerful paddlers on the planet come to Nova Scotia to battle it out.
- The 2022 ICF Canoe Sprint and Paracanoe World Championships will take place from August 3 – 7, in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.
- With a dynamic race schedule on the lake, and a public cultural festival along Prince Albert Roadway, this international event is sure to entertain and have a big impact.

THE VENUE

- Lake Banook is considered one of the world's best natural paddling racecourses.
- Infrastructure upgrades are planned to make the venue even better.
- Prince Albert Roadway will also be closed to allow for thousands of people to watch the races, free of charge.

CANOE '22

 LAKE BANOOK
ICF CANOE SPRINT & PARACANOE
WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

