CONSIDER STARTING A COMMUNITY GARDEN THIS SUMMER

Did you know you can start a community garden in your neighbourhood?

Many community gardens in Halifax are operated by residents on land owned by the municipal government.

Applications for spring 2022 are due by March 30. To review HRM's application form and handbook, visit: <https://bit.ly/351wo1X>

You'll also find a full list of existing community gardens if you're thinking of joining one.

Let's get growing!

HRM'S TREE PRUNING PROGRAM IS UNDER WAY - YOU CAN HAVE A SAY!

The municipality's tree pruning program is a proactive, cyclical maintenance program intended to ensure the continued health and safety of our urban forest. The Winter 2022 program is now underway and is expected to continue throughout March.

Any resident may call 311 to request street tree work within the municipal service boundary. For more information, visit www.halifax.ca/trees

FREE HELP WITH YOUR INCOME TAXES

Halifax Public Libraries has shared that registration for free tax clinics with the Library opens March 1.

Free tax clinics, opens a new window are hosted by Canada Revenue Agency and their partnered community organizations through the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program.

You can register for 2022 tax clinics by calling your local library branch or by visiting in-person.

Community members that register for a 2022 tax clinic will have their tax return completed via telephone with a volunteer.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

On March 8th, we celebrate all the women and girls who inspire us - from leaders around the world to our own daughters. This day is also to raise awareness of the progress made towards achieving gender equality and the work yet to be done. I am very proud to be a part HRM's first Regional Council with gender parity—which is equal representation of elected Councillors who identify as women and men.
