

HALIFAX

Conversation with the Women's Advisory Committee of Halifax about HRM's *Women and Gender Equity Strategy

2022-09-07

The Office Of Diversity and Inclusion/African Nova Scotian Affairs Integration Office

Access & Privacy Statement

This meeting will be audio and/or video recorded, and notes will be taken for the purpose of creating a record of the proceedings and to inform the strategy development. If you do not agree please leave the meeting now.

We do encourage you to provide a written submission via email to baylee.brown@halifax.ca.

Land Acknowledgement

Introductions

What is the Women and Gender Equity Strategy?

A guiding document that will help Halifax Regional Municipality to advance gender equality in the region.

HALIFAX

Guiding Principles

- Collaboration
- Intersectionality
GBA+
- Accessibility
- ReconciliACTION

What We Heard During Our Last Conversation

- Representation of women, gender diverse people, and those you identify as racialized at all levels of government
- Equal opportunities for success
- Safety in all spaces especially the built environment, transportation, and housing
- Services and programs that are accessible to all
- Housing:
  - ❖ Adequate and appropriate housing for all
  - ❖ The impact of HRM's Planning & Development policies on women

Vision to Action- Top 3 Priorities

What are 3 most important priorities that you believe the Strategy should include to make life better for women, girls, gender diverse and non-binary people in the Halifax region?

Any other comments, questions or reflections?

Thank you and when you'll hear from us

- We commit to sharing the results of the What We Heard Report with our partners and residents via email and Halifax.ca
- We will continue to communicate with you as the strategy is developed and when we have new updates!
- Have more to share? Email HRM at baylee.brown@halifax.ca.

Thank
You

