SUBJECT: Changes to HRM By-law P-1200 Respecting On-street Parking Permits

ORIGIN

This is a staff-initiated report based on feedback from staff, citizens and data compiled from the parking technology system.

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY

Motor Vehicle Act, R.S.N.S. 1989, c. 293, s. 153, allowing Council to make By-laws prohibiting or restricting “the parking or leaving standing of vehicles except in accordance with a sign or device on a parking meter”.

Motor Vehicle Act, R.S.N.S. 1989, c. 293. S. 154, allowing Council to make a By-law “exempting person or vehicles from parking restrictions within the city, town or municipality and providing for permits to be issued to those who are exempted”.

Halifax Regional Municipality Charter, 2008, c. 39, 60(1) The Council may make policies (c) setting and amending the fees to be paid for (iii) permits, applications and approvals required to be obtained from the Municipality or an employee of the Municipality pursuant to a by-law of the Municipality or an enactment...

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that Halifax Regional Council:

1. Adopt By-law P-1203, amending By-law P-1200, the On-street Parking Permits By-law, as set out in Attachment B to this report; and
2. Adopt the amendments to Administrative Order 15, the License, Permits and Processing Fees Administrative Order, as set out in revised Attachment C to this report.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The purpose of the proposed changes to the parking permit By-law is to simplify the application process, clarify permit categories and associated regulations and adjust rates to better align with supply and demand of permit inventory.

BACKGROUND

In October 2018, Halifax Regional Council enacted By-law P-1200 – Respecting On-street Parking Permits. This By-law combined elements of the Residential On-street Parking Policy, the Regional Parking Strategy Functional Plan, and the Integrated Mobility Plan, and aimed to improve the experience of those requiring on-street parking in residential areas, as well as accommodating the growing needs of Car Share Organizations.

In October 2020, Halifax Parking Services launched the Integrated Parking Technology Project, introducing new software to manage all elements of the municipally managed parking system, including on-street parking permits.

These changes have created opportunities to improve our permit offerings.

DISCUSSION

The curb lane is a valuable and highly sought-after section of the municipal right of way, with competing priorities ranging from parking and loading to active transportation and sidewalk cafes. Parking Services has a mandate to balance those competing priorities and enact policies that ensure that transportation priorities as defined by Regional Council are upheld. A major component of that stewardship is through the Parking Permits By-law.

With the new parking technology, there is a large amount of parking data available to staff to make evidence-based decisions on parking usage. With the data in hand, staff undertook an exercise to collect user and staff feedback for each of our parking permit categories.

Annual Resident Parking Permit

Per By-law P-1200:

The purpose of the Annual Resident Parking Permit is to increase access to on-street parking for residents that own or lease vehicles.

Objective #1 – Redefine the current permit parking zones to prevent resident permits being used by commuters

Current Annual Resident Permit Zones were created in 2018 to allow residents some flexibility to find on-street parking within their neighbourhood, rather than just on their street. The zones in practice turned out to work as intended, with the exception of Zone Six (6), which encompassed an area from North Street to Sackville Street. This created opportunities for some residents to use their Annual Resident Permits to travel/commute from the North End to Downtown, rather than to facilitate parking at home. A change to zone 6 dividing the commercial and residential areas would require drivers to pay for a space at their destination downtown or choose an alternate method to commute. Proposed new permit zones are set out in schedule A of this report.

Objective #2 – Clearly define the eligibility requirements for Annual Resident Permits

Annual Resident Permits are currently available to residents who live in buildings with four or fewer dwelling units. There has been some confusion in the past surrounding what constitutes a "building". In response, staff recommend amending eligibility requirements to residents of properties with four or fewer dwelling units, with the property being defined using the boundaries of the associated parcel (PID).

Objective #3 – Increase the annual permit fee for all Annual Resident Permit zones and allow a second permit to be purchased at a premium rate to reduce demand for limited on-street spaces

Staff propose an increase in fees to better reflect the cost of the permitting program.. According to recent research out of the Victoria Transport Policy Institute, the typical urban on-street parking space has annualized land, construction and operating costs that total $630 to $2,600.^[1] Annually millions of dollars are spent on road maintenance, recapitalization, snow removal and enforcement. Staff propose an increase in fees to help off-set these program costs. The $75 annual rate works out to about 20.5 cents/day, which is still much lower than off street rates.

Current policy allows residents to purchase only one Annual Resident Permit per dwelling unit. Staff are aware that some residents use an Annual Visitor Parking Permit to park a second vehicle on street, despite this not being the intended use of the Visitor Permits. Proposed changes to the visitor program will remove the option to buy an Annual Visitor Permit, so staff are recommending allowing a second Annual Resident Permit to be issued to households who require it. Parking Services proposes a rate of $175 for a second Annual Resident permit for residents who require one. The total annual cost of $250 would represent a fee of 68.5 cents per day to park two vehicles on street.

If adopted, the proposed changes would remove the ability to share the Annual Resident Permit among multiple vehicles, which can currently be assigned to two vehicles, only one of which is allowed to be parked on street at any given time. This one-car-at-a-time rule is subject to abuse, and difficult to enforce. The one-car-per-permit policy will improve the effectiveness of our enforcement operations and provide better accuracy when estimating supply and demand pressures of a particular street.

Visitor Permits

Objective #4 – Discontinue the Annual Visitor Parking permit and replace with a pay-per-use visitor parking program

Annual visitor permits are currently available to residents of any dwelling unit that qualify for an Annual Resident Parking Permit. The visitor permits are a physical card to be displayed on the dashboard of the automobile and are fully transferrable. The current cost is $40/year.

The new parking technology launched in 2020 allows for Compliance staff to check the status of a parked vehicle by scanning the license plate of the vehicle on a handheld device. The device would indicate if the vehicle has been assigned a valid on-street parking permit. The current visitor permit is one of only two permits that is not tied to a license plate. Compliance staff must physically search for the permit on the passenger-side dashboard of the vehicle. This can be challenging, especially in situations where the permit may be obscured by other things on the dash, heavy snowfall, etc.

Staff recommend implementing a pay-per-use visitor permit to allow visitors and service providers to purchase short-term parking permits, offering the same exemptions afforded by the annual resident permit. These permits could be purchased online or at storefront at a moderate price. Similar models are currently used in other cities, including Toronto and Kingston to allow visitors to park on streets where permits are required.

[1] Todd Litman (2022), Comprehensive Parking Supply, Cost and Pricing Analysis, Victoria Transport Policy Institute (www.vtppi.org); at www.vtppi.org/pscp.pdf.

Staff recommend pricing on the Visitor Parking Permits as follows:

Permit Length	Price
1 day	$15
2 day	$25
7 day	$35

These permits would be instant purchase, i.e., no staff intervention is required to verify eligibility or to validate information. This would allow a driver to purchase a permit that is immediately valid. This permit would be applicable for all visitors including service providers, such as, telecommunications installers, construction contractors, etc.

Data collected from the sale of the new visitor parking permits can provide insight on the number of visitors, the duration of their stay, and the locations which are most desired. This will be added to the other data provided by parking technology to help continue to guide Parking Services staff in developing policy and services.

Commuter Permits

Objective #5 – Adjust the cost of Monthly Commuter Parking Permits.

Parking Services has grown our commuter parking inventory from 233 permits available per month in June 2020 to 635 permits available for sale in June 2022. This growth in inventory has resulted in a corresponding growth in revenue from sales and has identified areas where demand is the highest (and supply may be insufficient). Staff continue to identify more areas where permit parking may alleviate congestion and create opportunities for more commuter parking.

As a result, staff recommend adjusting pricing on Commuter Parking Permits as follows

Parking Permit Zone	Current Monthly Cost	Proposed Monthly Cost (% change)
7,8,9	$60	$70 (+17%)
10	$50	$70 (+40%)
2,5,6	$50	$55 (+10%)
11	$40	$55 (+38%)
1,3,4,12,13,14,15	$40	$35 (-17%)

This pricing better reflects the cost of administering permits in these zones, and continues to be well below off-street monthly parking rates. Further, staff recommend eliminating the requirement to submit a vehicle registration as part of the permit application process. This will simplify the process for both the applicant and the staff issuing the permit and reduce the number of records containing personal information that need to be retained.

Student Commuter Permits

Objective #6 – Change the Student Commuter Parking Permit pricing model to include a discount on Commuter permits

Halifax Parking Services offers students, with a valid student ID, to purchase a Commuter Permit at a discounted rate. Currently this rate is $35 per month, regardless of zone. Staff recommend a $10/month discount for students in all zones while respecting the difference in demand that exists between zones.

Carshare Parking Permits

Objective #7 – Improve the experience of car share users by permitting use at paid parking locations

Car share is an important element in Halifax's overall Integrated Mobility Plan. Halifax has designated parking spaces for vehicles registered to an approved carshare organization. Currently, there is one organization that has been approved (Communauto Atlantic). Members have expressed concern that these spots are often occupied, abused, or located in inconvenient locations.

Staff recommend amending the exemptions allowed to Car Share Permit holders to allow parking in on-street paid parking spaces without requiring additional payment. If this amendment is adopted, staff intend to remove all spaces currently designated as "No Parking Except by Special Permit - Car Share Parking Only" and redesignate those spaces for other curb uses.

Objective #8 – Change the annual cost of Car Share permits to better reflect the value provided to members

Staff recommend increasing the per vehicle annual fee from $40 to $100 to reflect the increase in available spaces to permit holders and the ability to park at paid parking spaces. While staff recognize the importance of car share as an element of a healthy transportation network, car share companies are for-profit ventures and this pricing increase (while still well below market parking rates), better reflects the value extended to car share companies than the current fee and allows the Municipality to recover some construction and maintenance costs associated with providing on street parking.

Temporary Resident Parking Permits

Objective #9 – Change the Temporary Resident Parking Permit to a digital permit

Temporary Resident Parking Permits are physically displayed permits provided to residents who lose access to their private driveway resulting from HRM construction. Staff recommend moving to a digital permit for ease of distribution and enforcement. The current parking technology can support this change easily.

Staff also recommend extending eligibility to those residents who lose access to their private driveway as a result of Halifax Water-related construction activity.

Contractor Parking Permits

Objective #10 – Discontinue the Contractor Parking Permit program

The Contractor Parking Permit was created to allow tradespeople working in paid parking areas to be able to exceed the four-hour-per-zone time limit that was in place at the time that the new Paid Parking Technology was launched. That four-hour limit has since been removed, and the contractor permit has very low demand. Contractors looking to park in areas subject to time limit or permit restrictions will have the option to purchase a daily visitor permit. As there are now other, more cost-effective options available, staff recommend discontinuing the Contractor Parking Permit.

General Changes

Objective #11 – Repeal the replacement permit fee as described in Administrative Order 15

Provided Halifax Regional Council accepts the proposed changes of the Visitor Parking Permit and the Temporary Resident Parking Permit, all parking permit offerings will be digital-only (i.e., no physical permits will be issued). As a result, staff recommend repealing the replacement permit fee of $15 as indicated in Administrative Order 15.

Objective #12 – Reduce the amount of personal information required to apply for a parking permit

By-law P-1200 currently requires permit applications to submit vehicle permits, proof of address, and/or photo identification, depending on the type of permits requested. The digitization of permit processing has eliminated the need to collect, verify and store some personal information associated with permits. Staff has changed these requirements such that only the minimum required information is collected.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Annual Resident Parking Permit

- Changing price to $75 will result in an increase in revenue of $41,000/yr based on 2021 permit sales

Visitor Parking Permits

- Annual visitor parking permit revenue was $11,280 in 2021. The annual visitor permits will cease to exist with the introduction of P-1200 and a new, pay-as you-go visitor permit will be introduced in its place.
- If 23% of existing visitor permits convert to a second resident permit at $175, this revenue will be recovered
- Revenue for new one-, two-, and seven-day visitor permits is difficult to forecast

Commuter/Student Commuter Permit

- Increase in revenue of $3,200/mo ($38,400/yr) based on sales in April and May 2022
- Does not factor in anticipated inventory increase as program expands to new areas

Car Share

- Loss of $1,500/yr in paid parking revenue
- Increase of $7,400/yr in permit revenue based on $100/yr fee
- Net increase of $5,900/yr

The 4-year Financial Implications are summarized as follows:

Fiscal Year	2023/24	2024/25	2025/26	2026/27
Operating – Parking Services Revenue	$85,300	$85,300	$85,300	$85,300

Total Revenue Increase from proposed changes is approximately $85,300/yr (based on past sales), plus revenue from visitor permits, which is difficult to forecast.

RISK CONSIDERATION

There are no significant risks associated with the recommendations in this Report.

The risks considered rate low. To reach this conclusion, consideration was given to operational, financial, and reputational risks.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Feedback was received from permit holders and community residents via service requests and direct contact with staff. This feedback informed the changes proposed in this report.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no environmental implications associated with this report.

ALTERNATIVES

Halifax Regional Council could choose to:

1. Adopt the proposed amendments subject to modifications. This may require a supplementary report.
2. Not adopt the proposed amendments, thereby not achieving the benefits or revenue opportunities identified within this report.
