FOUNDER

WYNDOLYN BROWN

Raised in the community of East Preston, she is the mother of five beautiful children and four precious grandchildren, who are her world.

Her goal through Empowerment for Hope is to support families by breaking the cycles of violence, abuse and trauma and giving children and families the resources they need for a better future through awareness and empowerment.

Wyndolyn has become a keynote speaker, sharing with groups and educational facilities to raise awareness.

SEX TRAFFICKING occurs when someone uses force, fraud or coercion to cause a commercial sex act with an adult or causes a minor to commit a commercial sex act

Advocate, educate and empower young girls, women & youth on the dangers of human trafficking, sexual violence & gender based violence.

Things to Pay Attention to

- If your child has told you, an adult asked them to keep a secret. Safe adults don't do that.
- Our young people, newcomers, women and those that identify with the LGBTQ2 communities face the highest in being targeted for sex trafficking.
- Getting asked to do any sexual activity for money
- Inability to speak to individual alone & Answers appear to be scripted and rehearsed
- Signs of physical abuse
- Submissive or fearful
- Unpaid or paid very little
- Under 18 and in prostitution

Education is critical saving individuals from being trafficked

Empowerment for Hope is here to support you in your education and fight against sex trafficking
