

The Halifax Regional Municipality
is accepting applications for the

Anti-Black Racism (ABR) Grants Program

Are you a registered African Nova Scotian/African descent-serving non-profit or charity seeking funding for an initiative aimed at addressing anti-Black racism throughout the municipality? Submit your application for the ABR Grants Program!

Grants valued at $500 up to a maximum of $10,000 are available.

Who can apply?

- Applicants must be a registered non-profit organization or a registered Canadian charity and be located in the geographic boundary of the Halifax Regional Municipality.
- Priority will be given to applicants from the African Nova Scotia and African descent communities, with an emphasis on grassroots, volunteer-led groups serving local residents.
- Unregistered groups may submit a joint application in partnership with a registered non-profit or charitable organization. If successful, any award will be issued to the registered co-applicant.
