

Proclamation
Lower Sackville Town Crier
January 12, 2026

WHEREAS Greg Fenwick has been historically recognized as Town Crier for Lower Sackville appointed by former Councillor Bob Harvery and having received the latest appointment by former Councillor Paul Russell; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of a Town Crier is to serve as a public announcement officer making public pronouncements, such as proclamations, advertisements, and other news. The Town Crier is expected to embody the culture and best personality of the community they represent, maintaining the respect and high ideals of their office. They may be invited to open major events, introduce dignitaries, and lend an element of pageantry to special occasions. Although largely ceremonial, the Town Crier plays a vital role in the community's communication and engagement.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Councillor Billy Gillis, on behalf of the North West Community Council, do hereby proclaim Greg Fenwick as "Lower Sackville Town Crier".

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
