

DISTRICT 6

Rainie Murphy

Rainie is exuberant, determined, solid in her faith, and committed to improving the community of Sackville, increasing food security to those in need, and providing safe spaces for members of the LGBTQ+ community. Her ability to draw others into projects, her tireless commitment to getting the job done, and her genuine love and concern for others is evident in all she does. She has contributed countless hours preparing food for those in need, sleeping at Knox United Church so that a safe and warm space was available to those in need during hurricanes, and providing entertaining and safe camping experiences for the LGBTQ+ community. She is an inspiration to many, is a loving wife and tremendous friend who gives of herself, and is a shining example of someone who takes initiative to make good things happen.
