9.2 COMMITTEE MEMBER UPDATES

9.2.1 Ted Doane: Ceremonial shilling, use of summer houses, viewing plains, and scheduling another tour of the fortifications at Point Pleasant Park

Ted Doane spoke to the lease that was signed with the municipality to rent Point Pleasant Park from the British government and the ceremonial event to commemorate the lease.

Doane noted the need to renovate the summer houses at the park to accommodate public events, the need for the committee to discuss and assess the view plains of the park. Doane discussed scheduling another fortification tour visit to the park, which would involve the general public at a future date in August.

The Committee agreed to hold the ceremonial shilling event next summer, open to the public and schools, to raise awareness about the park lease to the municipality.
