(i) where the matter was referred to the Review Officer by an applicant, to the applicant and to any third party notified pursuant to this Act, or

(ii) where the matter was referred to the Review Officer by a third party, to the third party and to the applicant.

(2) In the report, the Review Officer may make any recommendations with respect to the matter under review that the Review Officer considers appropriate. 1993, c. 5, s. 39; 1999 (2nd Sess.), c. 11, s. 23.

(a) make a decision to follow the recommendation of the Review Officer or any other decision that the head of the public body considers appropriate; and

(b) give written notice of the decision to the Review Officer and the persons who were sent a copy of the report.

(2) Where the head of the public body does not follow the recommendation of the Review Officer, the head of the public body shall, in writing, inform the persons who were sent a copy of the report of the right to appeal the decision pursuant to clause (a) to the Supreme Court within thirty days of making the decision.

(3) Where the head of the public body does not give notice within the time required by subsection (1), the head of the public body is deemed to have refused to follow the recommendation of the Review Officer. 1993, c. 5, s. 40; 1999 (2nd Sess.), c. 11, s. 23.

Appeal to Supreme Court

41 (1) Within thirty days after receiving a decision of the head of a public body pursuant to Section 40, an applicant or a third party may appeal that decision to the Supreme Court in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rules or by the regulations.

(1A) An appeal is deemed not to have been taken pursuant to this Section unless a notice of appeal is given to the Minister by the person taking the appeal.

(1B) Where a notice of appeal is given pursuant to subsection (1A), the Minister may become a party to the appeal by filing with the prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia a notice stating that the Minister is a party to the appeal.

(2) The head of a public body who has refused a request for access to a record or part of a record shall, immediately on receipt of a notice of appeal by an applicant, give written notice of the appeal to any third party that the head of the public body

(a) has notified pursuant to this Act; or

(b) would have notified pursuant to this Act if the head of the public body had intended to give access to the record or part of the record.

(3) The head of a public body who has granted a request for access to a record or part of a record shall, immediately on receipt of a notice of appeal by a third party, give written notice of the appeal to the applicant.

(4) A third party who has been given notice of an appeal pursuant to subsection (2) or an applicant who has been given notice of an appeal pursuant to subsection (3) may appear as a party to the appeal.

(5) The Review Officer shall not be a party to an appeal.

(6) Where the head of a public body decides to give access to a record or a part of a record after the Review Officer files a report setting out the

Review Officer's recommendations respecting the matter, the head shall not give access until the time limited for a third party taking an appeal from the decision to the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia expires and

(a) no appeal has been taken by a third party from the decision within the time limited for so doing; or

(b) where an appeal has been taken within that time by a third party, it has subsequently been abandoned or withdrawn, but, where an appeal is taken by a third party, the head shall not give access until either the decision of the head is upheld by an order of the Supreme Court and the order becomes final by lapse of time or the decision of the head is upheld by the highest authority to which any further appeal or appeals are taken. 1993, c. 5, s. 41; 1999 (2nd Sess.), c. 11, ss. 17, 23.

Powers of Supreme Court

42 (1) On an appeal, the Supreme Court may

(2) Notwithstanding any other Act or any privilege that is available at law, the Supreme Court may, on an appeal, examine any record in the custody or under the control of a public body, and no information shall be withheld from the Supreme Court on any grounds.

(3) The Supreme Court shall take every reasonable precaution, including, where appropriate, receiving representations ex parte and conducting hearings in camera, to avoid disclosure by the Supreme Court or any person of

(a) any information or other material if the nature of the information or material could justify a refusal by a head of the public body to give access to a record or part of a record; or

(b) any information as to whether a record exists if the head of the public body, in refusing to give access, does not indicate whether the record exists.

(4) The Supreme Court may disclose to the Minister or the Attorney General of Canada information that may relate to the commission of an offence pursuant to another enactment by an officer or employee of a public body.

(5) Where the head of the public body has refused to give access to a record or part of it, the Supreme Court, if it determines that the head of the public body is not authorized to refuse to give access to the record or part of it, shall

(a) order the head of the public body to give the applicant access to the record or part of it, subject to any conditions that the Supreme Court considers appropriate; or

(b) make any other order that the Supreme Court considers appropriate.

(6) Where the Supreme Court finds that a record falls within an exemption, the Supreme Court shall not order the head of the public body to give the applicant access to the record, regardless of whether the exemption requires or merely authorizes the head of the public body to refuse to give access to the record. 1993, c. 5, s. 42.
